Foreign Resident Program

Protect the life you love

A home. A career. A business. A family. You've worked hard to establish a life in the United States. Along the way, you've taken on responsibilities, pursued dreams and created a future full of possibilities.

Life insurance can help provide financial support for the people you love if something happens to you. From everyday expenses to major financial obligations, it can help them maintain stability during a difficult time.

Assurity's Foreign Resident Program offers life insurance options for eligible foreign residents, even if they aren't U.S. citizens or Green Card holders.

What do you want to protect?

- Your Family
  Help provide money for everyday expenses, debts and future financial needs if something happens to you.
- Your Home
  Help your family manage mortgage payments and other financial obligations.
- Your Business
  Help give your family financial security and your business the resources to keep operating in your absence.

Coverage to fit your life

Term Life Insurance — Affordable protection for a set number of years, making it a practical way to protect your home and financial needs.

Own a home or a business with operations in the United States.

Foreign residents with an eligible U.S. visa
Have lived in the U.S. for one or more consecutive years, have stable employment and meet other program requirements.

Foreign residents without a Green Card or visa
Have lived in the U.S. for one or more consecutive years and meet the program's identification, employment, property or business ownership requirements.

Not sure which category applies to you? Your insurance professional can help determine whether you qualify and walk you through the documentation you'll need.
